27

28 NEW SECTION. Section 2. Dispute resolution program -- complaint process. (1) An aggrieved

1 party may file a complaint with the department alleging a violation of this chapter.

2 (2) After receiving a complaint under [sections 1 through 4], the department shall investigate the 3 alleged violations and, if appropriate, facilitate negotiations between the complainant and the respondent.

4 (3) (a) Complainants and respondents shall cooperate with the department in the course of an
5 investigation by responding to requests for information issued by the department. The requests may seek 6 access to papers or other documents and provide site access to the mobile home parks relevant to the 7 investigation. Complainants and respondents shall respond to the department within 21 calendar days after 8 receiving a request.

9 (b) Failure to cooperate with the department in the course of an investigation is a violation of 10 [sections 1 through 4].

11 (4) (a) If, after an investigation, the department determines that the parties are unable to come to 12 an agreement, the department shall make a written determination on whether a violation of [sections 1 through 13 4] has occurred.

14 (b) If the department finds by a written determination that a violation of [sections 1 through 4] has 15 occurred, the department shall deliver a written notice of the violation by certified mail to both the complainant
16 and the respondent. The notice of violation must specify:

17 (i) the basis for the department's determination;

18 (ii) the violation;

19 (iii) the action required to cure the violation;

20 (iv) the time within which that action must be taken;

21 (v) the penalties imposed if that action is not taken within the specified time period; and

22 (vi) the process for contesting the determination, required action, and penalties by means of an 23 administrative hearing pursuant to subsection (9).

24 (c) If the department finds by a written determination that a violation of [sections 1 through 4] has 25 not occurred, the department shall deliver a written notice of nonviolation to both the complainant and the 26 respondent by certified mail. The notice of nonviolation must include:

27 (i) the basis for the department's determination; and

28 (ii) the process for contesting the determination included in the notice of nonviolation by means of

1 an administrative hearing.

2 (5) (a) A respondent shall comply with the requirements of a notice of violation from the
3 department within 15 business days after receiving the notice of violation, unless the respondent has submitted
4 a timely request for an administrative hearing to contest the notice of violation as provided in subsection (9)(b).

5 (b) If a respondent, including a landlord or a tenant, fails to take corrective action within the 6 required time period and the department has not received a timely request for an administrative hearing, the 7 department may impose a fine of up to $250 for each violation for each day that a violation remains
8 uncorrected.

9 (c) The department shall consider the severity and duration of the violation on other mobile home
10 park residents when determining the amount of penalty imposed under subsection (5)(b).

11 (d) If the respondent shows, upon timely application to the department, that a good faith effort to 12 comply with the requirements of the notice of violation has been made and that the respondent has not
13 complied because of mitigating factors beyond the respondent's control, the department may delay or dismiss
14 the imposition of a penalty.

15 (6) The department may issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from an 16 unlawful practice and to take affirmative actions that, in the judgement of the department, will carry out the 17 purposes of [sections 1 through 4]. Affirmative actions may include but are not limited to:

18 (a) providing refunds of rent increases, improper fees, and charges collected in violation of 19 [sections 1 through 4];

20 (b) filing documents that correct a statutory or rule violation; and

21 (c) taking reasonable action to correct a statutory or rule violation.

22 (7) A landlord may not take any retaliatory actions against a tenant for expressing an intention to
23 file a complaint under [sections 1 through 4] or for filing a complaint under [sections 1 through 4]. If the 24 department determines that a landlord has retaliated against a tenant, the department may impose a fine of up
25 to $5,000 on the landlord.

26 (8) Any penalty levied against a landlord under [sections 1 through 4] is a lien against the 27 landlord's mobile home park until the landlord pays the penalty.

28 (9) (a) A complainant or respondent may request an administrative hearing before an

1 administrative law judge to contest:

2 (i) a notice of violation issued under subsection (4)(b) or a notice of nonviolation issued under
3 subsection (4)(c);

4 (ii) a penalty imposed under subsection (5)(b), (7), or (8); or

5 (iii) an order to cease and desist or an order to take affirmative actions under subsection (6).

6 (b) To request an administrative hearing allowed in this section, the complainant or respondent
7 shall file the request within 15 business days after receipt of a notice of violation, a notice of violation penalty, a
8 cease and desist order, or an affirmative action order. If an administrative hearing is not requested within this 9 time period, the notice of violation or notice of nonviolation constitutes a final agency order of the department.

10 (c) If an administrative hearing is initiated, the respondent and complainant shall each bear the 11 cost of the individual's legal expenses.

12 (10) If the department imposes a penalty against a respondent landlord under [sections 1 through 13 4], the respondent may not seek any recovery or reimbursement of the penalty from a complainant or from any 14 other tenant.

15 (11) All money collected from the imposition of penalties allowed under this section other than any
16 portion of a penalty required to be paid to a complainant must be deposited in the mobile home park dispute
17 resolution program account established in [section 4].

18 (12) This section does not provide exclusive remedy and does not limit the rights of a landlord or 19 tenant to take legal action against another party as provided in [sections 1 through 4] or otherwise provided by 20 law. Exhaustion of the administrative remedy provided in this section is not required before a landlord or tenant
21 may bring a legal action.

22
